SUPPORT SHOWS THAT SOLDIER ON

Sir — I would like to commend Oldencraig Equestrian Centre on holding its unaffiliated dressage event on the weekend of 23-24 March. The rain never stopped that week and, as we drove for 1½ hr to get there, it didn't stop snowing the nearer we got.

But the organisers carried on and, to our great surprise, had a smile on their faces throughout! In such awful weather, it is people and centres like this that keep us all competing, so it was sad to see only two competitors turn up in one of my classes.

We had a wonderful day and the people there made us feel so welcome, introducing us to everyone else. I wonder how long they can continue to run these unaffiliated events if we don't show our support.
